This bill would require each state agency that collects any fees included in Schedule 8 of the Governor's Budget Summary 2007-2008 to review those fees and determine if the appropriate amount is being charged for the service and if the fee amount is undercharging or overcharging for the service or program.

Any fees that would impact the department are not included in the schedule 8. As such, this bill would not impact the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
